CBAI Adds SHAZAM's DocuCommand to Its List of Endorsed Products

Springfield, IL. (September 28, 2022) — Community Bankers Association of Illinois (CBAI), through its business services subsidiary, Community BancServices Corporation (CBSC), today announced they're adding SHAZAM DocuCommand, a document imaging system, to their list of endorsed products. DocuCommand™ is an advanced, enterprise-wide document scanning, archiving, retrieval, and management system. Whether working from multiple desktops, in the office or remote, users can access the information they need — anytime, anywhere.

"As community banks embrace digital solutions to meet compliance obligations, increase efficiency and add convenience for their customers, products like DocuCommand are critical for their future," commented Mike Kelley, President and CEO of CBSC. "The leadership at CBSC believes so strongly in the product that we'll use it to serve our members as well."

DocuCommand stores all types of media files including paper, photographs, audio, video, blueprints, and electronic files from any Windows Office application or third-party product. Reducing time and money spent looking for documents, DocuCommand works for businesses of any size, allowing the storage of unlimited amounts of information and data.

"DocuCommand has a 20-year history as a valuable tool for community banks of all sizes," said Paul Waltz, SHAZAM's President and CEO. "Best of all, the product gives banks the ability to customize the filing structure to meet their needs, giving them the choice and flexibility to enforce the integrity of their filing process and maximize searchability."

Fast. Flexible. Dynamic. DocuCommand comes with additional benefits:

- Reclaim storage space and audit document access for each document
- Store unlimited amounts of information and data
- Rely on critical information to be securely protected and easily recovered
